Block 10, Preparation Instructions (Continued)

10.2.1 Hardware. Include all assemblies of the equipment configuration which would be logically disassembled from the total configuration for the purpose of packing and shipping. This includes major device assemblies, cable assemblies, power cables, connectors, transformers, ductwork, ladders, steps, fire extinguishers, dehumidifiers, test equipment, probes, test carts, recorders, amplifiers, head sets, telephones, typewriters, tools, repair part sets, work benches, housekeeping equipment, furniture, and the like. Major device assemblies or subassemblies of a major device assembly that are Government Furnished Equipment or Contractor Acquired Operational Equipment shall be included.

a. Unmodified operational equipment shall be designated with an asterisk (*) in the remarks column.

b. Modified operational equipment shall be designated with two asterisks () in the remarks column.

c. Easily pilferable equipment shall be designated with a dollar sign ($) in the remarks column.

d. An item that is easily pilferable and either modified operational or unmodified operational equipment shall be marked with both symbols as appropriate.

10.2.2 Computer tapes. Computer tapes shall be addressed individually by title, document number, revision level, and program compile date, as appropriate.

10.2.3 Publications and technical report. Publications and technical reports shall be addressed by publication (P) number, technical (TD) numbers, or other control numbers, as appropriate. The remarks column shall contain the statement, See Volume I for Content, for multi-volume documents.

10.2.4 Other deliverable items. Other deliverable items shall be addressed individually, such as the Supply Equipment List, Repair Parts List, Drawing List (Technical Data List), etc.

10.2.5 Header information:

a. Equipment designator: Enter the equipment number.

b. Equipment nomenclature: Identify by nomenclature the equipment that is the subject of the record.

c. Equipment serial number: To be provided by the Government.

e. NSN/LSN: Federal (National) stock number/local stock number shall be provided by the Government.

10.2.6 Item number (block A). Number consecutively in Arabic numbers beginning with 1. Consecutive lower case letters shall suffix the number for sub-items, e.g., 4a, 4b. More than one space may be used for an item or sub-item. Hardware items shall be sequenced from major assemblies to subsystems.

10.2.7 Nomenclature, model or part number, and serial number (block B). Enter the noun name followed by part number, model number, or serial number, as applicable. Sub-items shall be grouped by equipment types under primary items such as Major Hardware Items, Accessories, Documentation. Items to be delivered by the Government shall also be listed.

10.2.8 The following categories, when applicable, shall be included as major sub-items under Major Hardware Items with appropriate hardware listed under each category:

- a. Government Furnished Equipment (Unmodified)
- b. Government Furnished Equipment (Modified)
- c. Contractor Acquired Operational Equipment (Unmodified)
- d. Contractor Acquired Operational Equipment (Modified)

10.2.9 Items required (block C). Enter the required quantity of each item. Items to be delivered by the Government shall be indicated by the number of items required, suffixed by an upper case C.

10.2.10 Equipment checks (block D). This block contains eight consecutively numbered columns to enable the inventory record to be utilized repeatedly to document individual transfers and receipts of the equipment. At initial delivery of the equipment, place a () in column 1 to denote delivery of the number of items shown in block C (items required). If the number of items actually delivered is less than the required number shown in block C, the actual number of items delivered shall be shown in column 1. Column 1 shall be left blank for items to be delivered by the Government.

10.2.11 Location or remarks (block E). This block shall be used as necessary to indicate location of components within the equipment or for other remarks concerning the listed items.

10.2.12 Checked by and date. The eight consecutively numbered blocks across the bottom of the inventory record are to identify the person responsible for performing the inventory of the items delineated on that page of the EIR.
